PERNIN SYSTEM LEARNED

The Pernin System of Shorthand is the most easily learned, the simplest, most legible and rapid in use. It is a non-position, nen-shading and connective vowel system. In it no arbitrary word signs are used. The confusing and discouraging elements common to other systems have been avoided in the building of this. It is one of the new systems, and is constantly superseding the older and more complicated ones in our leading schools and colleges throughout the country.

Insamuch as this is a connective vowel system with no arbitrary word signs, it is applied by the foreign languages also. Owing trary word signs, it is applicable to foreign languages also. Owing to the great possibilities of the system, Pernin Shorthand writers are in great demand as government stenographers and court re-

GRANITE MFR. MARRIED.

Percy R. Davis of Firm of Mould Davis at Morrisville.

The marriage of two of Morrisville's The marriage of two of Morrisville's most popular young people took place. Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Edith Dodge became the bride of Percy R. Davis. The wedding was at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrson Dodge of Congress street and the guests included only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. Rev. C. C. St. Clare of the Congregational church performed the ceremony, using the Episcopal ring service. Miss Eugenia Rocheleau of St Johnsbury seted as bridesmaid and D. L. Sanders of this village as best man. The bride was becomingly gowned in a traveling suit of dark blue and carried bride's roses. The rooms of the Dodge home were artistically decorated with evergreens, holly and cut flowers. After the coremony on Tuesday, January 9th, at 10 o'clock dainty refreshments were served in the dining room by Mrs. B. A. Palmer of D. P. Town, Cashier. Vilder, Miss Eugenia Rocheleau of St. ohnsbury, Mrs. W. I. Le Baron, Miss Manhen Peck and Miss Clara Dodge, Mr. they will reside with the bride's parents for the present. The display of wedding gifts was rich and beautiful. The bride has for the past six years been a popular clerk in George P. Drowne's store, is a graduate of People's Academy and a young lady popular with a large circle of friends. The groom is a member of the firm of Mould & Davis, granite cutters, and during his residence of socraty years in Morrisville has proven himself a successful young business man.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

Pirst Appearance of Dandruff a Fore-That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Frot. Unna, the noted European akin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair butb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy. Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the mar-ket to-day.
